

Adult Community-Based Resource Low (CBR-L) Policy

Approved:

Date: June 2012

I. Policy

Adult Community-Based Resource Low (CBR-L) Probation is a supervision approach intended for probationers who are considered to be at a low risk to reoffend. This would include Interstate Compact In: Receiving Transfer cases. This supervision level is most successful when a reactive level of supervision is utilized with an active supervision for any problem areas. The following probationers shall be considered for Adult Community-Based Resource Low (CBR-L) Probation supervision:

- A. Probationers identified through an assessment instrument to be at a Low risk to recidivate.
- B. Probationers who have failed previously at a lower level of community supervision as an alternative to revocation.
- C. Probationers who have succeeded at higher levels of supervision and have been transitioned appropriately to this level.

II. Purpose

To provide a foundation for Adult Community-Based Resource Low (CBR-L) Probation.

B. Services

Services are the resources necessary to address and reduce criminogenic risk factors and recidivism. Service delivery is accomplished through a variety of methods including staff delivery, as well as brokering and contracting with agencies in the community. Some of these services include but are not limited to:

1. The Standardized Model for the Delivery of Substance-Abuse Services
2. Fee for Service Voucher Assistance
3. Continuous Alcohol Monitoring Financial Assistance
4. Substance Abuse Testing
5. Victim Services
